

As a consumer and a listener of both broadcast and satellite radio, I feel that there is no reason why a pay satellite subscriber should not be allowed to listen to weather and traffic on XM. Functionally, it is the same as getting local weather from the Weather Channel on cable (PAY) TV.